

S. Bruce Outhouse, Q.C.

Bruce Outhouse is a partner with the law firm of Blois, Nickerson & Bryson LLP in Halifax. He received his law degree from Dalhousie University in 1971 and has been in private practice since that time. Mr. Outhouse specializes in arbitration, mediation, civil litigation, administrative law and public utilities regulation. He has been very active as an arbitrator and mediator since 1978, having decided more than 1,200 labour and commercial arbitrations and having been involved in the successful settlement of major labour disputes both provincially and nationally. Mr. Outhouse also has extensive experience in administrative law and public utility regulation, serving as counsel to the Nova Scotia Utility and Review Board (formerly the Board of Commissioners of Public Utilities) since 1976. He is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and Member of the National Academy of Arbitrators.